FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

This matter comes before the Deputy Zoning Commissioner for consideration of a Petition for Variance for that property known as 14525 Old York Road, located in the vicinity of Paper Mill Road in Phoenix. The Petition was filed by the owner of the property, Jacksonville Church of God, through David A. Jennings and Arthur W. Robar, Trustees. The Petitioners seek relief from Section 413.1.B of the Baltimore County Zoning Regulations (B.C.Z.R.) to permit one bulletin board-type sign containing 100 sq.ft. in total area in lieu of the maximum permitted 30 sq.ft. The subject property and relief sought are more particularly described on the site plan submitted which was accepted and marked into evidence as Petitioner's Exhibit 1.

Appearing at the hearing on behalf of the Petition were Reverend Robert W. Groves, Pastor of the Jacksonville Church of God, and William Ulrich, Professional Engineer with Gerhold, Cross and Etzel, who prepared the site plan for this property. There were no Protestants or other interested persons present.

Testimony and evidence offered revealed that the subject property consists of 3.525 acres, more or less, zoned, R.C.2, and is improved with an existing church building and accessory parking area for the Jacksonville Church of God. Also located on the property is an identification sign of 115 sq.ft. in total area. The Petitioner is desirous of replacing that sign with a bulletin board-type sign in accordance with that depicted on Petitioner's Exhibit 1. Clearly, the proposed sign will actually be smaller than the existing sign which has been on the property for many years. The Church wishes to upgrade the existing sign with a more modern sign which will allow them to advertise worship times as well as other messages. However, in order to replace the existing sign as proposed, the requested variance is necessary.

Date

By

An area variance may be granted where strict application of the zoning regulations would cause practical difficulty to the Petitioner and his property. McLean v. Soley, 270 Md. 208 (1973). To prove practical difficulty for an area variance, the Petitioner must meet the following:

- 1) whether strict compliance with requirement would unreasonably prevent the use of the property for a permitted purpose or render conformance unnecessarily burdensome;
- 2) whether a grant of the variance would do a substantial justice to the applicant as well as other property owners in the district or whether a lesser relaxation than that applied for would give sufficient relief; and,
- 3) whether relief can be granted in such fashion that the spirit of the ordinance will be observed and public safety and welfare secured.

Anderson v. Bd. of Appeals, Town of Chesapeake Beach, 22 Md. App. 28 (1974).

After due consideration of the testimony and evidence presented, I am persuaded to grant the variance. It has been established that the proposed sign will replace an existing sign which has been on the property for many years. Moreover, the proposed sign will actually be smaller than the existing sign. Furthermore, there were no adverse comments from any

Baltimore County reviewing agency, nor any opposition from any adjoining property owner. Therefore, it appears that the relief requested will not cause any injury to the public health, safety or general welfare, and meets the spirit and intent of the B.C.Z.R.

Pursuant to the advertisement, posting of the property, and public hearing on this Petition held, and for the reasons given above, the variance requested should be granted.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED by the Deputy Zoning Commissioner for Baltimore County this 4th day of June, 1997 that the Petition for Variance seeking relief from Section 413.1.B of the Baltimore County Zoning Regulations (B.C.Z.R.) to permit one bulletin board-type sign of 100 sq.ft. total area in lieu of the maximum permitted 30 sq.ft., in accordance with Petitioner's Exhibit 1, be and is hereby GRANTED, subject to the following restriction:

- 1) The Petitioners may apply for their sign permit and be granted same upon receipt of this Order; however, Petitioners are hereby made aware that proceeding at this time is at their own risk until such time as the 30-day appellate process from this Order has expired. If, for whatever reason, this Order is reversed, the relief granted herein shall be rescinded.
